Municipal community safety and well-being plan

143 (1) The council of each municipality to which subsection 4 (1) applies shall prepare and, by resolution, adopt a community safety and well-being plan. 2018, c. 3, Sched. 1, s. 211 (6).

May be prepared individually or jointly

(2) The community safety and well-being plan may be prepared by the municipal council individually or jointly in consultation with other municipal councils or band councils. 2018, c. 3, Sched. 1, s. 211 (6).

First community safety and well-being plan

(3) A municipal council must prepare and adopt its first community safety and well-being plan before the second anniversary of the day on which this section began applying to the municipality. 2018, c. 3, Sched. 1, s. 211 (6).

Transition, deemed compliance

(4) The Minister may deem a community safety and well-being plan to have met all of the requirements set out in section 145 if,

(a) consultations to develop the plan were completed before January 1, 2019; and

(b) in the Minister’s opinion, the consultations substantially complied with the obligations set out in section 145. 2019, c. 1, Sched. 2, s. 3.

First Nation community safety and well-being plan

144 (1) A band council of a First Nation may prepare and adopt a community safety and well-being plan. 2018, c. 3, Sched. 1, s. 211 (6).

May be prepared individually or jointly

(2) The community safety and well-being plan may be prepared by the band council individually or jointly in consultation with other band councils or municipal councils. 2018, c. 3, Sched. 1, s. 211 (6).
Preparation of plan by municipal council

145 (1) A municipal council that prepares a community safety and well-being plan shall establish an advisory committee. 2018, c. 3, Sched. 1, s. 211 (6).

Joint preparation of plan

(2) Despite subsection (1), a group of municipal councils that are jointly preparing a community safety and well-being plan shall jointly establish and consult with a single advisory committee. 2018, c. 3, Sched. 1, s. 211 (6).

Membership of committee

(3) The advisory committee must, at a minimum, consist of the following members:
   1. A person who represents,
      i. a local health integration network for a geographic area in which the municipality is located, as determined under the Local Health System Integration Act, 2006, or
      ii. an entity that provides services to improve the physical or mental health of individuals in the community or communities.
   2. A person who represents an entity that provides educational services in the municipality.
   3. A person who represents an entity that provides community or social services in the municipality, if there is such an entity.
   4. A person who represents an entity that provides community or social services to children or youth in the municipality, if there is such an entity.
   5. A person who represents an entity that provides custodial services to children or youth in the municipality, if there is such an entity.
   6. An employee of the municipality or a member of the municipal council.
   7. A person who represents the board of the municipality or, if there is no board, the commander of the detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police that provides policing in the area or his or her delegate.
      7.1 A chief of police of a police force that provides police services in the area or his or her delegate.
   8. Any other prescribed persons. 2018, c. 3, Sched. 1, s. 211 (6); 2019, c. 1, Sched. 2, s. 4 (1, 2).
Single individual may meet multiple requirements

(3.1) A single individual may satisfy the requirements set out in multiple paragraphs of subsection (3). 2019, c. 1, Sched. 2, s. 4 (3).

Same, joint plans

(4) If the community safety and well-being plan is prepared by a group of municipal councils or band councils,

(a) the members of the advisory committee shall be appointed by agreement of the participating municipal councils and band councils; and
(b) the provisions of this Act that apply to community safety and well-being plans apply, with necessary modifications, to joint community safety and well-being plans. 2018, c. 3, Sched. 1, s. 211 (6).

Considerations

(5) In appointing the members of the advisory committee, the municipal council or councils shall consider the need to ensure that advisory committee is representative of the municipality or municipalities, having regard for the diversity of the population in the municipality or municipalities. 2018, c. 3, Sched. 1, s. 211 (6).

Consultations

(6) In preparing a community safety and well-being plan, the municipal council or councils shall,

(a) consult with the advisory committee;

(b) consult with the members of the public, including youth, members of racialized groups and of First Nation, Inuit and Métis communities, in the municipality or municipalities and, in the case of a joint plan with a First Nation, in the First Nation reserve;

(c) consult with community organizations, including First Nation, Inuit and Métis organizations and community organizations that represent youth or members of racialized groups, in the municipality or municipalities and, in the case of a joint plan with a First Nation, in the First Nation reserve; and

(d) comply with any consultation requirements that may be prescribed. 2018, c. 3, Sched. 1, s. 211 (6).

Use of information

(7) In preparing a community safety and well-being plan, the municipal council or councils shall consider available information related to crime, victimization, addiction, drug overdose, suicide and any other prescribed risk factors, including statistical information from Statistics Canada or other sources, in addition to the information obtained through its consultations. 2018, c. 3, Sched. 1, s. 211 (6).

Other prescribed requirements

(8) The municipal council or councils shall meet the prescribed requirements, if any, in preparing its community safety and well-being plan. 2018, c. 3, Sched. 1, s. 211 (6).

Transition

(9) A community safety and well-being plan that was adopted in accordance with this section, as it read at the time, continues to be valid despite any intervening changes to this section. 2019, c. 1, Sched. 2, s. 4 (3).

Content of community safety and well-being plan

146 A community safety and well-being plan shall,

(a) identify risk factors in the municipality or First Nation, including, without limitation, systemic discrimination and other social factors that contribute to crime, victimization, addiction, drug overdose and suicide and any other prescribed risk factors;

(b) identify which risk factors the municipality or First Nation will treat as a priority to reduce;

(c) identify strategies to reduce the prioritized risk factors, including providing new services, changing existing services, improving the integration of existing services or coordinating existing services in a different way;

(d) set out measurable outcomes that the strategies are intended to produce;

(e) address any other issues that may be prescribed; and

(f) contain any other information that may be prescribed. 2018, c. 3, Sched. 1, s. 211 (6).

Publication of community safety and well-being plan

147 A municipal council that has adopted a community safety and well-being plan shall publish it in accordance with the regulations. 2018, c. 3, Sched. 1, s. 211 (6).

Implementation of community safety and well-being plan

148 A municipal council that has adopted a community safety and well-being plan shall take any actions that the plan requires it to take and shall encourage and assist other entities to take any actions the plan requires those entities to take. 2018, c. 3, Sched. 1, s. 211 (6).
REPORTING AND REVISION

Monitoring, evaluating and reporting

149 (1) A municipal council that has adopted a community safety and well-being plan shall, in accordance with the regulations, if any, monitor, evaluate and report on the effect the plan is having, if any, on reducing the prioritized risk factors. 2018, c. 3, Sched. 1, s. 211 (6); 2019, c. 1, Sched. 2, s. 5 (1).

Publication

(2) The reports referred to in subsection (1) shall be published on the Internet in accordance with the regulations, if any. 2019, c. 1, Sched. 2, s. 5 (2).

Revision by municipality

150 (1) A municipal council that has adopted a community safety and well-being plan shall review and, if appropriate, revise the plan within the prescribed period. 2018, c. 3, Sched. 1, s. 211 (6).
