St. John's Anglican Church First Responder & Medical Personnel Thanksgiving Service

To honour and acknowledge the dedication and service of first responders and medical personnel in our community, the congregation of St. John's Anglican Church wish to invite you to an evening of praise and thanksgiving.

The recent loss of two police officers in Ontario, as well as tragic events in other provinces, highlights the importance of our communities supporting your mental and spiritual health as well as your physical health.

This event is our way of showing our appreciation and to ask God's blessing for the risks and sacrifices that you all make to save and improve the lives of the residents of Tillsonburg and surrounding area.
