The Tillsonburg Community Pantry project aims to augment existing food insecurity services and reduce food waste by providing free access to nutritious food. Operating on a "take what you need, leave what you can" principle, the pantry will foster community participation and mutual aid. The project will collaborate with local organizations, accept donations from various sources, and ensure flexible accessibility.

We have presented the project to the Station Arts Centre board and received conditional approval to locate the pantry at their site. We seek the Town Council's guidance and support to meet regulatory requirements, including bylaw compliance and zoning. Your support will help us create a sustainable and compassionate Tillsonburg where no one goes hungry.
